JOURNEY OF VIBRANT BUILDCON 2025

Vibrant Buildcon came into existence from a bold and unifying vision—to create a comprehensive global platform for the entire building material's ecosystem. The goal was clear: to consolidate India's industrial strength and project it onto the global stage with confidence, scale, ambition and make the exhibition as One Nation, One Expo.

We express our deep gratitude to CAPEXIL, particularly under the dynamic leadership of Shri Ramesh K. Mittal, Chairperson, CAPEXIL, whose continuous encouragement and institutional backing enabled Vibrant Buildcon to secure national importance. The strategic involvement of CAPEXIL's sectoral panels, member exporters, and the trusted support of the Ministry of Commerce & Industry, Government of India, turned this concept into a reality.

This vision found wings under the inspired leadership of Shri Nilesh Jetpariya, Senior Vice Chairman of CAPEXIL - Ceramics and Refractories Panel and Member of Board of Trade. His legacy of turning ideas into impactful industry movements laid the foundation for Vibrant Buildcon to emerge as a global sourcing and networking platform, with Morbi at the epicentre of innovation and manufacturing excellence.

We also acknowledge the valuable contribution of Shri Narendra Sanghat, Member - Regional Committee (Western Region), CAPEXIL, whose active involvement further strengthened the initiative at the grassroots level and added depth to the regional outreach efforts.

This national movement was carried forward under the larger vision and guidance of Shri Piyush Goyal, Hon'ble Minister of Commerce & Industry, whose forward-thinking leadership became the driving force behind India's emergence as a global manufacturing hub. We also convey our heartfelt thanks for the invaluable support and presence of key dignitaries and decision-makers whose involvement gave Vibrant Buildcon its credibility and impact:

- Shri Mansukh Mandaviya, Hon'ble Union Minister of Labour and Employment and Youth Affairs and Sports, whose insights added strong national resonance to the event.
- Shri Parshottam Rupala, Hon'ble Member of Parliament, for his sustained encouragement and outreach support.
- Shri Mohan Kundariya, Hon'ble Former Minister of State for Agriculture and Farmers Welfare of India, for his commitment to representing regional industrial interests on national platforms.
- Shri Sunil Barthwal, Commerce Secretary, Ministry of Commerce, Government of India, whose administrative clarity and strategic guidance added immense value to our mission.
- Shri Suniel Shetty, Actor & Brand Ambassador of Vibrant Buildcon 2025, whose presence as a visionary entrepreneur helped connect industry with inspiration.

Together, we executed a series of global roadshows and promotional campaigns across strategic markets to attract serious international buyers, distributors, and investors.

We are also thankful for the continued collaboration and mobilization efforts by leading institutions including the Cement Manufacturers Association, Indian Council of Ceramic Tiles and Sanitaryware (ICCTAS), Steel Association, Morbi Ceramic Association, and the Rajkot Hardware Manufacturers Association, whose regional outreach, media efforts, and logistical support helped amplify the event's scale at a national level.

On the international front, Vibrant Buildcon received an overwhelming response. 1,426 buyer registrations were received through our international portal. However limited by circumstances, we hosted more than 765 high-potential global delegates from over 85 countries. Each delegate was mapped to Indian suppliers which helped in creating direct opportunities for OEM tie-ups, bulk orders, strategic alliances, and long-term export contracts.

The presence of thousands of domestic visitors, leading architects, procurement consultants, top Indian distributors, and project developers further reinforced Vibrant Buildcon's stature as a pan-India and international event.

10X VISION FOR THE FUTURE

Vibrant Buildcon is not just an exhibition-it is a collaborative movement to redefine India's global trade positioning in the construction materials sector. Our ambition is to scale this initiative into a 10x larger platform and expand into newer product verticals in future editions. With unified industry support and government partnership, we aim to make India a global sourcing hub for building materials, just as China once was.

TOGETHER, LET'S BUILD FORWARD BIGGER, BOLDER, GLOBAL.

ABOUT THE EXPO VIBRANT BUILDCON

Vibrant Buildcon 2025 emerged as a landmark event in India's journey towards becoming a global hub for building materials. Conceptualized as India's first integrated global business exhibition dedicated to the building materials sector, the event offered an all-in-one platform for Indian manufacturers to connect, collaborate, and create new business opportunities with serious international buyers.

Held from 13th to 16th April 2025 at Yashobhoomi - India International Convention and Expo Centre (IICC), New Delhi, the expo brought together multiple industry segments under one roof. HON'BLE MINISTER OF COMMERCE & INDUSTRY

“As the Union Minister of Commerce & Industry, it was a privilege to address Vibrant Buildcon 2025, a landmark platform showcasing India's strength in the building and construction sector. I firmly believe that this industry holds the power to shape the nation's future, and I urged all stakeholders to commit to sustainable, clean, and green construction practices. This is the time to invest in research, innovation, and the development of earthquake-resistant, modular, and smart infrastructure that aligns with global standards. India today is becoming a hub for Global Capability Centres (GCCs), and our construction ecosystem must match this growth with futuristic housing, commercial real estate, transport corridors, airports, and energy infrastructure.

I believe that construction must go hand-in-hand with inclusivity ensuring fair wages, dignity of labor, and long-term employment generation. I also acknowledged the valuable role of organizations like CAPEXIL in bringing together industry leaders, exporters, and global stakeholders. Through such forums, we can build meaningful partnerships and attract global investment. India has the potential to not only meet domestic needs but also become a global supplier of high-quality building materials and technologies. "It has been a truly enriching experience visiting India for the first-ever Vibrant Buildcon 2025. We are Nicole Smith and Joseph Martínez from Mexico, and we came specifically to attend this exhibition. We were pleasantly surprised by the outstanding quality and elegant design of Indian tiles and ceramics—products that are not only beautiful but also unique, and we believe they could add great value to our business. Having done business with China for over seven years, we see strong potential in India as a competitive alternative.

The quality of products, professionalism, and warmth of the people here are remarkable. We've already started looking into taxes, freight, and other logistics as we explore new supplier partnerships in India.

Our experience with the Indian Embassy in Mexico has also been excellent—they've guided us through the process and made it much easier. Overall, this exhibition has been different from others we've attended around the world, and we are very happy to be part of it. We look forward to building long-term business relationships with India and definitely plan to return."
